At the end of Kenner's 3 days of SEC testimony in 2011 -- Attorney Stolper stated clearly for the SEC record that he was intimately involved with Kenner and Kenner's investors in Eufora (with Constantine) and the Hawaii-Mexico issues (with Jowdy) -- and demanded the SEC and US Attorney's offices really look at what he and his Giuliani investigation team discovered in the last year about all of the frauds...August 11, 2011

MR. CASTANO: 3efore we go off the record, do you want to clarify anything?

MR. STOLPER: The only thing I would clarify was that I think in your line of questioning, which may not come through in the transcript, whether he disclosed that the SEC has sought enforcement of subpoenas to his clients, I think that the suggestion in your question was that it was something negative that he should disclose to his clients as sort of a warning or red flag to his clients as sort of a warning or red flag to his clients are relying on him.

And I think that the conversations that I have been a part of, without waiving privilege, and also my own view is that my view of SEC's involvement in this whole Diamante del Mar, et al, is a welcome one and that we and Mr. Kenner, are really looking to the SEC to enforce the securities laws against Mr.
Jowdy and those who did wrong here. And we see it as a welcome thing, as a positive thing.
So the tenor of the conversations with phil's friends, co-investors, clients, is that this is a welcome thing and that maybe because we are having this direct communication with the SEC, and then perhaps subsequently with the U.S. Attorney's Office, that maybe they will finally get some justice out of this.
And I know I have said that off the record with you and I just wanted to clarify that in response to that line of questioning. Just a point of information.
